

Football Clinic for Youngsters to Be Held Here

A football clinic for all boys in the Torrance area of grade school age will be held at the Torrance High School Football field tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 p.m., according to L. Milton Isbell and Elmer "Red" Moon.

Jointly sponsored by the YMCA and the City Recreation Department, the event will be under the direction of the Tartar's Varsity Coach, Eddie Cole. Assisting him will be members of the 1948 Varsity.

The youngsters will be shown approved methods of ball handling, "T" formation handoff, fake reverse, spinner, quick kick and many other phases of football handling.

The event is a forerunner to the touch football league which is due to start next week.

Three-A Midgets at Carrell Oval

Carrell Speedway starts the early October show with the return of the mighty doodlebugs of the AAA midget auto racing circuit on Saturday night; roll into another sensational show of the California Roadster Hot Rods on Wednesday, Oct. 6, and then come right back with midgets again, Oct. 9.

Climaxing the 10-day racing spree will be the return of the ever-popular stock car racing clans on Sunday night, Oct. 10 at which time Troy Ruttman, Bert Livingstone, Lou Figueroa and others will resume their terrific duel for leadership in the season's point standings.

BLOND OR BRUNETTE?

TORRANCE MAN CARRIES GRIEVANCE TO TRUMAN

Parading with a large placard in downtown Los Angeles asking "the civil right to join a building trade union of my own choosing" during President Truman's visit to the city last Wednesday got results — of a kind — for Weaver H. Jones of Torrance.

"A man who said he was a union representative came out to my house two days later, but I wasn't home," Jones said. "I don't care about seeing him. I'm attacking this limited apprenticeship system in the building trades. That's what's causing your housing shortage."

Jones alleges that the system prevents him from teaching his own son the plasterer's trade unless he can get him an apprenticeship.

"A lot of people stopped to talk to me," Jones said. "Some of them were business men, and several offered to help me. Some union people stopped to talk with me, too. I told them all I wanted was just what my sign said — the right to join a building trade union of my own choosing.

"The union said they wanted to straighten me out on this thing," Jones added. "I'm trying to straighten them out."

Bridge Bids Are Rejected

Rejection of all bids submitted for construction of a bridge on Sepulveda boulevard over the Laguna Dominguez channel was recommended by O. F. Cooley, county road commissioner.

According to Cooley, the lowest bid of $9800 was submitted by Ober & Cook, and this was $4800 over the department's estimated cost of the work.

VETERANS OFFERED AID

The Department of Veterans Affairs announced that Mr. Ginter of the Division of Educational Assistance will be in this area on Thursday, Sept. 30, at the following places:

Compton Junior College—9:00 a.m.
Long Beach City College—11 a.m.
Long Beach Office of Department of Veterans Affairs—2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

His visit is for the purpose of interviewing veterans and veterans' dependents who desire to take advantage of the educational opportunities offered by the State of California.

'Amsterdam Report' to Be Given Monday

Church people of all denominations in this community are invited to attend a "Little Amsterdam Meeting" at 7:45 o'clock next Monday evening, Oct. 4, at the First Baptist church of Los Angeles (760 S. Westmoreland ave.) to hear reports from the Los Angeles delegates who attended the recent Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, Holland.

"Because the Amsterdam Conference is one of the significant historic conferences of Christendom, this gathering should command the interest and attendance of all Christian people in Los Angeles," said Dr. Willie Martin, president of the Church Federation of Los Angeles. "As Christian people, we face a sobering situation. The whole Church must achieve new understanding and spiritual power."

The meeting on October 4 is the official interdenominational meeting for the Los Angeles area. It was planned by the delegates while they were in Amsterdam.

The evening's speakers and their subjects are: Dr. Eugene C. Blake, minister, Pasadena Presbyterian Church, "August 23, 1948"; Miss Helen Shedd, Occidental college graduate, "Youth in God's Design"; Dr. Theodore H. Palmquist, minister, Wilshire Methodist church, "Amsterdam Speaks."

Free parking space is available.

FALL SEASON OPENS FOR DELPHIAN GROUP

"Italy, Pawn of Politicians" will be the topic for the opening meeting of Sigma Rho Chapter of Delphian Society when the members gather tomorrow morning in city library following summer vacation.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. B. T. Whitney, club president, will entertain members at an informal luncheon at her home.

NEW CHECK PLAN

Veterans receiving educational allowances from the State of California will receive their payments by the 5th of each month under a new plan just inaugurated in the office of State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel.

Brotherhood Organization Is Perfected

The men of the first Lutheran Church organized a Men's Brotherhood Organization last night at the church parish hall. The Brotherhood is the official men's group. All the men of the church are invited and urged to join.

Emil Schaff, President of the California District of Brotherhoods of the American Lutheran church was present at last night's meeting to help organize a Brotherhood in First Lutheran Church. Sound films were shown of the social diversion of the evening.

Plans were made in the business meeting to organize a dart ball team which would participate in the dart ball league of the Lutheran churches in the southern section of Los Angeles county.

Five Adults Are Received

First Lutheran Church on Sonoma and Acacia received into its membership five new adults last Sunday morning. These adults were received into the church by the act of adult confirmation after having completed a course of adult instruction in christian fundamentals.

Those received into the membership were Mrs. Joe Bay, Miss Barbara Specht, Willard Specht, Wayne Scholl, and Richard Van Dyke.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Snyder and son, Dale, of Redondo Beach were received as members by transfer. They were former members of a Lutheran church in Columbus, Ohio.

Lutherans to Inaugurate New Program

Dr. Walter A. Maier, principal speaker of the International Lutheran Hour, will appear in person at the Hollywood Bowl Sunday, October 3, at 3:30 p.m. to mark the opening of the sixteenth season of the Lutheran Hour.

Over one hundred Lutheran churches of Southern California have joined forces to make this project possible. There will be a colorful Parade of Nations in which each country having an outlet for the Lutheran Hour will be represented. In addition, a mass choir of voices from all over Southern California has been assembled for the event.

There will be no admission charge to Hollywood Bowl for this rally.
